

IN MEMORIAM

Marvin Doolittle

August 20, 1928 – May 15, 2007

Lion Marvin Doolittle passed away at his home in Clovis on 15 May 2007. He was born 20 August 1928 to Truman and Ruth Doolittle. He was raised on a dairy farm owned by his parents in Texico which eventually became the Clovis Airport. He joined the Army and met June Crownover who would become his wife of 55 years. After his tour in the Army, Lion Marvin went to work for Mountain Bell where he worked for 34 years. After retiring, he started his own telephone business with his son, Tommy.

Lion Marvin was a long time member of the Clovis Lions Club. He enjoyed traveling with June and his family. He also enjoyed just spending time with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Lion Marvin was much loved by his family as a husband, Dad, Granddad, and Great-Granddad.

Graveside services for Lion Marvin were held at 10AM, 19 May 2007 at the Mission Garden of Memories.
